Gescheiden ouders
saboteren zomerplannen van hun ex

Vechtscheiden doet lijden. Tijdens de vakantie barst het getouwtrek om de kinderen helemaal los. 'Ex-partners kunnen elkaar dan makkelijk saboteren. Gewoon de identiteitskaart van het kind 'vergeten' en de ex kan niet met de zoon het vliegtuig in.' De kinderen zijn de dupe: naar hun zorgeloze zomer kunnen ze fluiten.

Even the schoolmaster praised him, for he found Pinocchio attentive, studious, and intelligent—always the first to come to school, and the last to leave when school was over.

But he had one fault: he made too many friends, and among them were several mischievous rascals who did not like to study.

The schoolmaster warned him every day, and the good fairy never failed to repeat it. "Be careful, Pinocchio!" she said. "Those bad classmates of yours will make you lose all love of study sooner or later, and they may even bring upon you some great misfortune."

"There's no chance of that!" answered the puppet, shrugging his shoulders and touching his forehead as if as to say, "There's too much sense here!"

Now it happened that one fine day, as he was on his way to school, Pinocchio met several of his usual companions, who asked, "Have you heard the great news?"

"No."

DISCOVER MORE

"Did you ever see a book without a word? Words are used to help you understand, although they are not necessary."

This subtle and precise praise to the essence of silent books comes from Books, a charming little book by Murray McCain, illustrated by the great designer John Alcorn. Before these words - which define with extreme simplicity the very essence of a book with no words more effectively than many debates and analysis - it is surprising that there is still underestimation and prejudice, sometimes unexpected.

Since 1998, Media Vaca has specialised in the invention of highly illustrated books designed for readers of all ages. The Publisher's catalogue currently contains sixty titles divided into five collections and beyond commercial criteria and novelty, it corresponds to the personal and whimsical taste of its Publishers. Perhaps, the majority of what we publish is related to the humour, poetry and mystery which inspire the myriad manifestations of popular culture. Likewise, we feel indebted to the work by

Bologna book fair appointment, Victoria Semykina

Dear Mr. ,

We would kindly ask you for an appointment along the Fair to introduce illustrated maquette of our new book "The Real Boat".

It is with great pleasure that we demonstrate the finished book (it will be finished next month).

Written by an award-winning author, Marina Aromshtam and illustrated by Victoria Semykina this fiction story invites the reader to make an adventure into the magic aquatic world with their numerous dwellers.

The illustrations of this book won 3x3 International Children's books Professional Show N12 (2015).

This is a story about a little paper boat who dreams of reaching the ocean, despite never having seeing it before.

He starts out on a journey, meeting all kinds of animals, boats and ships along the way.

The story is about adventure, bravery and discovery.

The book is dedicated for the children of the primary school age.

You will find attached the pdf of the dummy of the book and the text of the story.

We do hope to have an opportunity to work with your publishing house which we appreciate a lot.

The Author and the Artist are looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Victoria Antolini and Marina Aromshtam
